They will argue about same sex marriage, abortions, slavery, war and death row but they will not abolish them. This is the world we live in, we are cursed with sin. They want to save the world but not themselves, it is insane to live like that but they call it mankind.

If you are willfully sinning what does it mean? All men know stealing is wrong even without GODS commandment all Men Know stealing is wrong and do it anyway and when people are hurt and complain about the stealing does that affect you? When you say "JESUS freed me from sin" and you accept JESUS as your LORD and SAVIOR, as the ALPHA and the OMEGA, as ALL PRESENT, ALL KNOWING,

"If you are living in sin and the LORD is not correcting you then you are a bastard", that's their interpretation of Hebrew 12:8. This is the deception from the pimp temples all over the world. This is how they hook their John: "Oh JESUS loves you, he doesn't care what you did, and if you do it again JESUS still loves you. So come on in and join our club, you are his child even in sin. They will tickle your ears with nice words of encouragement". This is another mockery of when you sin just believe, it is a mockery of the gospel because there is NO POWER from our Lord JESUS to end sin in your life, there is no grace from our LORD. You are a bastard to GOD; he never has children who sin because you never were a child who believes. I quoted that blogger because I discern his words: he thinks everyone has a problem with sin every day. Every day he has to repent of his sin, he repeats his willful sin every day in the face of our Lord to say he is sorry until one day he gets tired of the convicting or dies. That's insanity, and that's their good news.

A true believer is not sinning and repenting, their heart is perfect their heart was circumcised by our LORD JESUS spiritually. Yet physically the true believer is not perfect because of one man we ALL live in chaos, corruption, ignorance, and death. The HOLY SPIRIT convicts the sinner not the true believer…LET ME REPEAT THE HOLY SPIRIT CONVICTS THE SINNER NOT THE TRUE BELIEVER! The true believer is dead to past sins there is NO KNOWING YOU ARE SINNING (in the present) OR GOING TO SIN (in the future). So don't let those pulpit pimps lie about their good news and take your time and monies. The Good News is FREE and one man made it right for you: EMMAUAL, JESUS the CHRIST, YEHOSHUA, The LAMB of GOD. Submit and Study!! There is know accountability for people spitting LIES. If you will not REPENT of the LIES you SPIT against GOD, the TRUTH-IN-ALL-THINGS, you will be thrown into HELL believing bullshit against GOD.
